Uppertown Social Centre - Uppertown, Ashover, S45 0JF.

Uppertown Social Centre Gets a Boost - Over 100 volunteer helpers and contributors attended the ceremony to celebrate the opening of the new extension at Uppertown Social Centre on 7th August. They were able to enjoy a splendid supper, music from talented local rock band 'Captain Jack', as well as a quiz and bingo.

Chairman Eddie Marriott explained that a need for more storage had developed into a project which provided extra seating and a new kitchen as well as storage facilities upstairs. Ed Willmot, Chairman of Ashover Parish Council, commented that the Centre demonstrated 'a fine example of the community working together' and 'it would be difficult to see how the Centre could be improved any further'. Finally and appropriately, Emma Marriott, former pupil of the school which was in the same building, cut the ribbon to the extension after a lifetime of involvement with the Centre.

HOLYMOORSIDE BOWLING CLUB, is a small friendly club with a crown green and clubhouse situated in an idyllic setting off Holymoorside. We have just had another busy season with our 6 teams who competed in the Chesterfield and District leagues along with a number of inter club friendly matches. We have a number of members with coaching accreditation who have been involved with coaching juniors on a Saturday morning, an initiative we propose to continue next year. The club will also be holding an open day early next season to which all are welcome to attend. If you would like to be involved in joining the club or have youngsters who would like to try it out then please contact Ernie Barnes 01246 568324.

WHO CAN YOU TRUST?

If you haven't heard about it already, you might want to check out Derbyshire Trusted Trader which gives local people confidence finding traders they can trust. Trusted Trader, run by Derbyshire County Council, is the fastest growing assured trader scheme run by a local authority in the country.

There is everyone on our list from builders, plumbers, roofers and glazers, to electricians, decorators, joiners and gardeners.

Trusted Trader gives peace of mind because everyone on the list has been checked out by Derbyshire County Council's trading standards team.

Among things we look for are records of county court judgements or any previous complaints against a company.

Businesses pay a small fee to join. Traders have to be based in Derbyshire or do half their work in the county to make the list.

Councillor Carol Hart, Derbyshire County Council's Cabinet Member for Communities, said: "Trusted Trader gives residents more confidence when they call out a trader at the same time as boosting good local businesses.

"There are well over 150 different trader types on our list from right across Derbyshire offering a great deal of choice."

To find your Trusted Trader, all you have to do is phone Call Derbyshire, the county council's contact centre, on 08456 058 058 or search our list of Trusted Traders on the council's website at www.derbyshire.gov.uk/trustedtrader
